Mr. Harry Halpern
Market St.
Newark N.J.

Dear Mr. Halpern:

I am afraid it is going to be necessary to make a few changes in our schedule. I am writing to ask you if they have not already gone to press, please hold up until you hear from me again.

In case they have been made, I will pay the entire cost for another set. I am of course terribly sorry, but I want your firm to know they will receive all the benefits from the advertisement they had expected. I am very appreciative of the fact that they print the schedules for me, and I want to assure them they will suffer no loss because of the changes that may be necessary.

I will let you know as soon as I receive definite word.

I do hope I am not causing you a great deal of inconvenience.

Very Truly Yours
